With vivid prose and a profound understanding of the human condition, the authors of these stories paint a moving portrait of a nation in turmoil, a people yearning for change, and the indomitable spirit that propelled them to action.

Voices from the Heart of the Revolution

Circling the Square brings together a diverse cast of characters, each with a unique perspective on the revolution. There's Ahmed, a young protester who finds himself torn between his dreams and the harsh realities of Tahrir Square; Mona, a seasoned journalist who witnesses firsthand the brutality of the regime; and Khalid, an elderly activist who reflects on the long struggle for freedom.

Through their stories, we delve into the hopes, fears, and sacrifices of everyday Egyptians. We witness the camaraderie forged in the midst of chaos, the resilience that sustained them through adversity, and the unwavering determination that ultimately led to victory.

A Complex and Nuanced Narrative

Circling the Square refuses to shy away from the complexities of the Egyptian Revolution. It explores the euphoria of the uprising, the setbacks and divisions that plagued the transition, and the challenges that continue to face the nation today.

The stories in this collection provide a nuanced and thought-provoking account of one of the defining events of our time, inviting readers to reflect on the nature of revolution, the power of collective action, and the enduring quest for justice and freedom.
