Nyamal Deng was just a young girl when her village was attacked by government forces. She witnessed the brutal murder of her family and was forced to flee for her life. With nothing but the clothes on her back, Nyamal embarked on a perilous journey that would forever change her life.

Nyamal traveled for weeks, hiding from soldiers and enduring hunger and exhaustion. She eventually reached a refugee camp in neighboring Ethiopia, where she found safety and support.

In the camp, Nyamal learned to read and write. She also met other survivors who had experienced similar horrors. Together, they formed a community of support and healing.

After several years in the camp, Nyamal was granted asylum in the United States. She arrived in a new country, alone and afraid. But she was determined to rebuild her life and make a better future for herself.

Nyamal enrolled in college and earned a degree in social work. She now works with other refugees, helping them to heal from the trauma of war and displacement.

Nyamal's story is a testament to the indomitable spirit of the human soul. Despite the unimaginable horrors she has endured, she has emerged as a symbol of hope and resilience.

Sudanese Survivor Story is a powerful and moving account of Nyamal's journey. It is a story that will stay with you long after you finish reading it.
