"To The Cross and Back" by David Wood

Embark on a captivating journey with David Wood, a renowned skeptic and former atheist, as he chronicles his extraordinary conversion to Christianity in his compelling memoir, "To The Cross and Back".

In this thought-provoking and deeply personal account, Wood candidly shares his intellectual odyssey from a staunch atheist to a committed believer. As a former atheist, he meticulously dissected the arguments for Christianity, determined to debunk them with the same critical thinking he had applied to other belief systems.

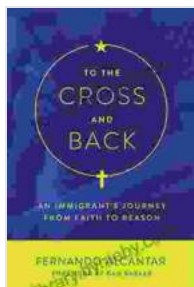

However, as he relentlessly pursued his investigations, he stumbled upon a series of irrefutable historical, scientific, and philosophical evidences that shattered his long-held skepticism. One by one, his objections crumbled, replaced by a growing conviction that the claims of Christianity were not only credible but compelling.

With candor and vulnerability, Wood recounts his gradual transformation, wrestling with the implications of his newfound faith and the profound impact it had on his life. "To The Cross and Back" is not merely a conversion story; it is a gripping intellectual adventure that challenges our preconceptions and invites us to embark on a quest for truth.

Whether you are a skeptic seeking answers, a believer seeking confirmation, or simply curious about the nature of faith, "To The Cross and Back" offers a thought-provoking and inspiring read. Join David Wood on his captivating journey as he uncovers the mind-boggling evidence that led him to the foot of the cross and back.
